

Ship Recycling Association

OUR POLICY

ISO 14001/2015 & ISO 45001/2018

In order to reach targets in our activities;

As the Board of Directors Ship Recycling Association ;

To satisfy the expectations of the concerned parties by doing the waste managements of the recycling scrap ships with convenient techniques,

To comply and implement the current Environment/OHSAS and other relevant legislations and the other conditions, To comply and implement the guidance of IMO-ILO, BASEL - HONG-KONG conventions and standards of the EU Ship Recycling regulation

To maintain the Environment and Occupational Health and Safety Management System; which is supported, implemented, audited, reviewed by our board of directors, internalized and being applied by all of the employees and revised, convenient to our publicly visible and constantly improved activities, and supportive to the strategic direction, to follow up the performance of our policy in reaching to its goal to take precautions about the defects.

Environmental Management In our activities;

Preventing the environmental pollution, protecting the environment, Tracking the environmental awareness of the employees by improving it, Continuous improvement of the management system to improve environmental performance, Contributing the energy saving and natural resource usage reduction, To be ready for emergencies,

OHSAS Management

To provide safe and healthy working conditions for the prevention of injuries and health in our activities, To monitor and improve the awareness of the health and safety of our employees at all levels, Control the OHSAS risks by using the control hierarchy, to eliminate and reduce the hazards, Continuous improvement of the management system to improve OHSAS performance, To provide consultancy and participation to workers / representatives in OHSAS management system decision-making processes, To be ready for emergencies, To create an environment that is open to participate and change with its employees, We are committed as Board of Directors. 03/01/2019

On behalf of the Board of Directors

Erwin CEJAKER